

Press release regarding the self-financed educational program: “Economics, Organization-Management & E-Governance in Education and Lifelong Learning”

8 April 2017

In Lamia, on Saturday April, 8 2017, at the premises of the University of Thessaly’s School of Science, took place the awarding ceremony of the Certificates for the postgraduate program.

This self-financed educational program, entitled “Economics, Organization-Management & E-Governance in Education and Lifelong Learning”, was annual (400 hours) and was attended by 31 teachers in 1st and 2nd level education as well as one administration officer in higher education, who are serving in Sterea Ellada, Thessaly and Attica.

This program was designed by the HELLENIC SCIENTIFIC INSTITUTE: ECONOMICS OF EDUCATION & LIFE LONG LEARNING, OF RESEARCH & INNOVATION and was implemented in collaboration with the IT department of Thessaly’s School of Science, under the supervision of its Lifelong Learning Center.

This program was implemented with the work of a total of 21 University professors, officers as well as special scientists in Education and Economy.

The awarding ceremony was attended and saluted by the department’s President, Professor George Stamoulis as well as the Institute’s President, Professor Emeritus Constantinos Tsamadias. The ceremony was also attended by Mr Chris Demetriou, Head of Regional Directorate of Education in Sterea Ellada, Mr Spyros Pilitzidis, Head of the Directorate of Education in Fthiotida, Dr. Ilias Argyropoulos, former Head of the Regional Directorate and Mrs Sofia Anastasiou, Assistant Professor of ATEI Stereas Elladas.

After being informed on the program’s targets and results by its coordinator Mr Makis Dellas, the certificates were awarded to the graduates, with wishes for success in their educational and administrative practice.